

K-LOVE is the only radio station I listen to. It provides positive and encouraging music and inspirational messages. The loss of K-LOVE would negatively impact our local community. Many youth have turned their lives around because of the positive effects K-LOVE has on our community. My hope is that stations such as K-LOVE can be expanded to other nearby communities - many residents in these communities need to hear the positive, encouraging messages from K-LOVE.